HINT TO WOMEN NEEDING A TONIC

Connecticut Resident Hopes Others Will Profit by Her Experience With This Remedy.

"If a word of advice from me will help other women who suffer as I did, I cer tainly want to give it," says Miss Elizabeth A. Carr, who lives at No. 1064 Broadbridge avenue, Stratford, Conn. "I had long been in a badly run-down con tired and lacked ambition and my blood was so thin that I couldn't get warm.

"One day I read a woman's statement of what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done for her, and her symptoms were so much like mine that I decided to try the remedy. There was such a marked prevement in my condition after I had tried the first box that I continued the treatment. My strength soon returned, and in a short time I was able to cat without fear of distress. I can do my work now and no longer tire easily. My blood is enriched, and I don't have chills any more. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an excellent tonic, and I can strongly mend them."

A useful booklet, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent free by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or you can order them direct by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50.—Adv.

RED CROSS NOTES Barre Women Vote to Continue Sewing and Order 100 Garments.

The regular monthly meeting of the Barre branch of the Red Cross was held last evening in the home service rooms in the Jackson block. Reports were given that of the home service department be ing especially interesting. Few realize the amount of work that branch is do-ing, many calls being received daily concerning the matters in which the depart ment specializes. The matter of furthe sewing was taken up and the women voted to continue the work. It was derided to send for 100 garments to make up as the work for the next month, and any women willing to help are asked t telephone 354-2. The sewing rooms will not be open, so this work is to be done at home. Barre has "fallen down" on noth ing she has attempted and so a specia appeal is made that each one who can assist on these 100 garments.
